

MATTER

Main Objectives

1. To study and classify some materials and their properties.
2. To carry out activities to determine mass and volume of matter.
3. To study some materials which have contributed to progress in technology.
4. To be able to explain differences in terms of density and floatability.
5. To understand that changes occur when materials are mixed, and that the changes can be physical or chemical.